PATROLMAN FINDS DIAMOND

While patrolling his beat along a portion of Main street, Patrolman George W. Judy found a heart-shaped gold brooch, which had originally contained twelve diamonds. Two of the stones had been lost, presumably by having been run over by some vehicle in the street. Patrolman Judy is anxious to have the jewel returned to its owner, as outside of the money value of the brooch, it is undoubtedly of value to someone as an heirloom.

TRIBUTE TO GOOD MAN

Writing in the Lexington Herald, Jesse Shuff, who specializes in trotting horse matters, says of the late W. G. Swearingen:

"W. G. Swearingen, who died at Columbus a few days ago from the effects of a fall received while training a trotter, was buried the past week at his old home in Paris. Mr. Swearingen had many friends in Lexington and the Bluegrass, who deeply regretted his untimely passing."

AGED WOMAN INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Bettie Moore, former post-mistress of Cynthia, whose present residence is Lexington, sustained serious injuries last week when the automobile in which she was en route to Lexington left the road and collided with a telephone pole on the Lexington pike, near Paris, Mrs. Moore was accompanied by Mrs. W. T. Bedford, of Paris.

While attempting to close a door of the car, Mrs. Moore lost control of the car, which swerved from the road. Mrs. Moore was picked up by J. H. Reister, of Cynthia, who accompanied her to the Massie Hospital in Paris, where it was found that she had several ribs broken, injury to her spine, and a compound fracture of the arm. While her condition is serious the attending physician states that she will recover.

Mrs. Moore is in her seventy-first year. She is a cousin of Mrs. Will G. McClintock, of Paris. Mrs. Bedford, although severely shaken up, was not injured.

OPENING OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Much interest is being manifested in the opening of the season for the Bourbon County Women's Clubs. Membership in the club is open to all the women of the county who are interested in matters affecting the life of the community. Every woman can find her place in one of the four departments, art, music, literature and community service. The following new members have been added to the roster, which now numbers 140; Mesdames A. T. Forsythe, James A. Orr, Charles N. Fithian, Howard Carr, Robt. C. Talbott, Lizzie Walker, John Yerkes, Swift Champ, Dan W. Peed, Jos. W. Davis, Jr., Harold Harris, J. C. Haley, J. Withers Davis, D. C. Lisle and Edna Dryden.

An interesting program has been arranged for the year's activities, and will soon be ready for distribution. As soon as the building has been formally opened the Club meetings will be held in the assembly room of the Soldiers' Memorial on Broadway, which has been rented for the season.

THANK YOU, SIR!

THE NEWS acknowledges receipt of a communication from Mr. Ed. R. Pike, local manager of the Presbyterian $1,000,000 Educational Campaign, in which the genial publicity man hands us the following compliment:

"Ed. THE NEWS, Paris, Ky.
"We have had a wonderful line-up of the co-operation from the folks of Paris, but the movement has had no greater support than from the newspapers. We deeply appreciate the news space and the thoughtful co-operation in planning and helping through advertising."

"The intensive work, of course, began Friday with the opening dinner to the workers, but the real testing time comes between Monday and Thursday of this week."

"Thanking you for your continued interest, I am

"Sincerely Yours,

"ED. R. PIKE,

"Local Campaign Manager."
